National Convention Delegates

DELEGATES PLEDGED TO VICE PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN

A. BAKARR KANU

"My presidential candidate's choice during the 2020 primaries was Joe Biden. I was one of his supporters who never wavered my support for him even when he was not doing well in the polls. To me, he was the best choice to represent the party in the 2020 presidential election and elect candidates up and down the ballot. The 2020 election will be the most critical election of our lifetime, and we have to get it right. If elected as the delegate to represent NC district 10, I will be a pledged delegate for Joe Biden. I want to be the delegate for the 10th district because I love my community and would love nothing more to represent the interests of District 10 at the National Convention. Most of the policies Joe Biden stands for, as outlined in my page below, are of interest to my community and me. www.facebook.com/pg/abakarrkanuphd

I am a Democrat in a VERY red district and want to be sure the voice of Democrats is heard.

HOWARD (BUD) STENTZ

Hi! I'm Bud! I've been dreaming of being a delegate to a national convention since 1959 and have worked tirelessly for candidates up and down the ballot since the days of LBJ. Currently, I am involved with the Hispanic Democrats of Forsyth County and several local legislative campaigns. I have come to the conclusion that Biden is the only candidate that can heal our nation. I am a Facebook warrior and have 7000 rabid Biden friends/followers. I feel obligated to keeping them and others in our local community abreast of the latest information related to Joe Biden and his campaign. Should you select me to represent District 10, I will pledge to do everything in my power to share the good news about our campaign, register as many new voters as I can and make our District stand out when the final votes are cast. Thanks for your support!

I want to represent Joe Biden at the National Convention because the only way we defeat the divisive tactics that plague our nation is through inclusion and welcoming all people, regardless of their story. We have just been through a hotly contested primary season and it's time to unify against a common opponent. I will strengthen this unity through my youthful energy. We all witnessed how other candidates captured the energy and attention of youth. Let me bring the next generation of young, progressive activists into our circle so that we may begin a new era of healing.

DELEGATES PLEDGED TO SENATOR BERNIE SANDERS

DEBORAH HOLLINGSWORTH

Sen Sanders has been a consistently vocal advocate for the kinds of New Deal policies that will serve all Americans, particularly during these difficult times. Sanders goals include guaranteeing healthcare, protecting workers, improving economic outcomes for all regardless of income or occupation. I want to attend the DNC as a Sanders' delegate to ensure these policies are included in our party platform.

DELEGATES PLEDGED TO MICHAEL BLOOMBERG

DOUGLAS AUER

We are in extraordinary times; the outcome remains very uncertain. On Super Tuesday North Carolina Democrats spoke with former Vice President Joe Biden the clear preference for a sizeable plurality. Still, more than 170,000 voters statewide found the message and candidacy of former New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg resonating. They, like me, voted for Bloomberg. Their views have earned a voice in the North Carolina delegation. I share many of these values as a lifelong Democrat and a native New Yorker. And one who knows we need to stand together now as a party, united in the singular objective of driving Trump out of the White House.

DONNA DELLINGER LUCKEY

My lifetime involvement in the Democratic Party began for me as a young child alongside my parents. I have been privileged not only to observe but to serve with many wonderful Democrats. My experience progressed from stuffing envelopes and handing out literature to absentee voting, registering, driving voters, managing Votebuilder, organizing GOTV efforts, and then on to leadership and committee roles at county, district, and state levels in both Party and individual campaigns. All of these roles were integral not only to my knowledge of the Party, but to my lifelong appreciation of its basic tenets. I treasure and dedicate this opportunity to my mother, who served our community and taught me the values of our Democratic Party. It would be a tremendous honor to be selected by my fellow democrats, as the Tenth Congressional District Elector, casting the vote for our Democratic President and Vice-President of the United States of America.
