National Convention Delegates

DELEGATES PLEDGED TO VICE PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN

SURLUTA ANTHONY

Hello Democrats, sending all a virtual hug. I want to represent Joe Biden at the DNC because I enthusiastically support him. Joe is experienced, serving in the U. S. Senate for 36 years and as Vice President for 8 years. He has and will work across the aisle and his knowledge of foreign affairs is unmatched. He has the respect of foreign leaders which is needed to regain our standing in the world, regain our allies and the United States once again will be the leader of the free world. Joe served on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for 3 decades. Joe believes in climate change and environmental protection. Increase production of renewable energy , a public option for health care, women rights, LGBTQ rights, livable wages, stronger gun laws, campaign finance reform, voting rights, immigration and police reform and inclusiveness. He will work with progressives on issues also. Joe exemplifies core Democratic values of fundamental beliefs and constitutional principles that unite America. Joe is good for our country and can beat Trump.

DYLAN CHAVIS

I want to represent Joe Biden at the Convention because his message of restoring the soul of our nation resonates with me. This country needs to know that young people DO support Joe Biden. I am 21 years of age (22 at the time of the Convention), I studied political science, and I want to let my voice be heard. My generation is the future of politics, and we deserve representation at the Convention for Vice President Biden. I know I can be that voice in August and in the months ahead.

JOHN EASTERLING III

Dr. King challenged us to convene a moral revival of the ages. We have seen over the last 3 years the depletion of morals and values from the highest office in the land. I believe strongly that Joe Biden is the man to restore integrity, justice, and grace back to the White House. Joe understands the struggle of the working class and has built bridges with the African American Community and on that bridge today I cross over and strongly endorse his candidacy. We need stability, vision, and proven leadership in the Oval Office. North Carolina is ground zero in the fight for a Dem majority in the Senate and control of our state legislature, we need candidates who can bring together those from different sides who are ready to restore honor and bring folks like Cal, Roy, and our Council of State to Victory.

MICHAEL EVOLA

I am a truly proud to be a Democrat. I serve as the President of the Union County Young Democrats and as the 28D Precinct Vice-Chair of the Union County Democratic Party. I am incredibly passionate about the Democratic Party. I represent both the youth and disabled communities and I believe Joe Biden is the candidate who can defeat Donald Trump. I see Joe Biden as someone who really cares about issues concerning the American people and will do whatever it takes to bring about the progress America deserves. It would be the honor of my life to represent Joe Biden.

CARL GANDEL

EDWIN GARCIA-ARZOLA

I support his agenda, movement, and vision when it comes to the betterment of American life (education, healthcare, etc.). His agenda is realistic and will virtual have no opposition in the Congress. Biden is the guy that rose from nothing and turn into something that Americans admire. And most importantly, he is not a socialist.

DREW KROMER

I grew up in Charlotte, volunteering for local Democrats. During undergrad at Davidson College, I started our town's precinct party, which we grew to over 400 members and raised over $75,000 for ourselves and candidates before leaving to attend law school at UNC Chapel Hill. Additionally, I have been elected to the SEC three times and served several years on the national board of the College Democrats of America. I'm running to represent Vice President Biden at the National Convention to demonstrate that while many younger Democrats sympathized with Senator Sanders, Joe does have real support within my generation. As a young person who has held leadership positions in the local, state, and national levels of our party, and who has supported Joe from the moment he announced, I believe I am a good choice to represent the many within my generation who are "Ridin' with Biden."

ERICKA L MCKNIGHT

As a devoted small business owner, adult educator, community and mental health adovcate. And a Democrat for many years with experience serving on former President Obama and Hilary Clintons campaign. I believe in the mission and initiatives set forth on behalf of the Biden campaign and Democratic party. We stand united to represent all people of the United States of America for liberty and justice for all! winwithericka2020.com

CRISTAL ROBINSON

Joe Biden is my presidential candidate, because we need a unifying candidate that can bring the American people and the Democratic leaders together to “battle for the soul of America,” He is not only focusing on climate change, education, and healthcare reform, but he is also looking at issues for rural Americans, LGBTQ+, and many other disadvantaged groups. He wants to fix our elections by changing campaign finance, voting rights, and gerrymandering, as well as rebuilding the Middle Class with homeownership, education, equality for everyone. I, Cristal Robinson, want to represent not only the 9th Congressional District, but the world in getting America back on track of greatness. Currently, I am the secretary of the Union County Democratic Party. My 7-year-old son needs to be proud of his country and its leaders. Joe Biden can do it. Vote for Cristal Robinson. MATT SADINSKY

Joe Biden represents the best in Democratic principles. He will assemble a cabinet of winners focused on SAFETY, JOBS, HEALTHCARE & INTEGRITY. He understands the importance of making our communities SAFE and HEALTHY. This is no time for Malarky - nor BS. There's too much to get fixed. Every able person needs a job with fair pay & benefits. Realigning our economy & assuring Healthcare as a right is the job for Dems in 2020. Education that leads to careers and professions sets our future. Joe gets it!

As a member of the NC DEM State Exec Committee, a small biz owner, father of five, grandfather of twin boys age 5, it is time to make NC and America BLUE! As a recruiter, HR pro, active in scouting, business & the religious community, I understand community! I want to be there for you & be in the room when it happens. Thanks for the chance to represent you.

PRESTON WADDELL

Why do I want to represent my Candidate Vice-president, Joe Biden as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention. I want to represent the people of my District/North Carolina to help choose the Democratic Nominee, and next president of the United States, essentially serving as proxies for voters back home. I want to as a District level/ State delegate who will represent my geographic area/North Carolina, because I believe in the Democratic party and what it stands for, a party that represent all people. I want to help make sure our nominee/candidate wins the majority of pledged delegates on the first ballot, as a delegate you'll help draft the party platform, including making public education, voter rights, women rights. the Economy, minimum wage increase, the environment and other issues in the upcoming election. Getting to go to see Democracy in action, upclose as a party delegate is a lifetime experience. I would be proud to represent the 9th District/North Carolina at the Democratic National Convention.

Presidential Electors

LEE BRIGMAN

KAREN NANCE

I would like to be a Presidential Elector for several reasons. Firstly, because I am able to separate my own personal beliefs from the majority opinion. Secondly, my profession has very strict ethical standards to which I am bound both in my professional life and my work life. And lastly, I feel there is a deficit today, in the political arena and society in general, in active listening skills. I am professionally trained to be a good and active listener which has often equipped me to reflect the needs of others in more accurate manner.
