DIMPLE AJMERA SALUTED BY MONTFORD POINT MARINES!

Charlotte City Councilwoman Dimple Ajmera was presented the PRESIDENT'S AWARD for OUTSTANDING CIVIC SERVICE at a recent banquet of the Montford Point Marines. The Montford Point Marines were the first African Americans ever enrolled in the US Marines. Dimple was hailed as a strong advocate for veterans. She led a campaign to get a Charlotte street renamed to: MONTFORD POINT STREET.

While serving several terms on the Charlotte City Council, Dimple and her husband, Dr. Vaibhav Bajaj, have developed a family with two daughters.

RALEIGH RECEPTION FOR STATE CHAIR!

On November 1st Joyce Fitzpatrick and Jay Stewart opened their Raleigh home for a reception honoring NCDP State Chair Anderson Clayton. Gary Pearce headed the Host Committee on which Brenda Pollard also served.

TANNESHIA DUKES ENJOYS CAMPAIGNING!

Former Assistant School Principal Tanneshia Dukes loves to meet new people and learn about them as she campaigns for House Seat # 59. Her district is located in Guilford County.

It includes Whitsett, Gibsonville, Pleasant Garden, McClellansville, Jamestown, Julian, and large suburban and rural areas of Guilford County.

The pictures on this page were made at the Whitsett Fall Festival. Since all the items on this table are soap-related, we have to wonder if her goal is to wash a Republican out of the General Assembly!

A great mother-son team! Tanneshia and her five year-old son, Brayden Dukes, are a terrific combination.

Above: Tanneshia is speaking at Harvest City Church about voting rights. True dedication: SHE RELINQUISHED HER JOB IN ORDER TO CAMPAIGN FULL-TIME!

DUPLIN ELECTS TWO NEW OFFICERS!

The Duplin County Democratic Executive Committee met at James Sprunt Community College on November 1st and elected a new County Chair and a new Second Vice Chair.

The new Chair is Doug Walter of Warsaw. The new Second Vice Chair is Lauren Branch of Wolfsrape Township.

(Betty McCain frequently said that “Wolfsrape” was one of the most unique precinct names she had ever heard anywhere in the state.)

SAMPSON COUNTY!

State Representative candidate Joshua Harrells of Roseboro and Sampson County Democratic Party Chair Ed Gillim were photographed at a Community Prayer event in Clinton on November 4th.

There is excitement about Joshua’s campaign to unseat a Republican in District 22!

This close up picture shows State Chair Anderson Clayton with the staff. The second staff member from the right is Kayla Jacobs who receives the GOOD NEWS from Secretary Williams and then sends it out statewide.

Governor Cooper addressed the block party.

State Chair Anderson Clayton vigorously inspired the crowd.
