

GOOD NEWS ABOUT DEMOCRATS!

Youth Feature: Randall Crew, Wake County!

ANDERSON CLAYTON STARS ON GOOD MORNING AMERICA!

On November 9th NCDP Chair Anderson Clayton starred on “Good Morning America.” Sitting beside her above is the youngest GOP State Chair who is 37.

Anderson thrived among the glass and steel skyscrapers of the “Empire City of the World.”

LONGTIME DEMOCRAT RANDALL CREW HONORED BY CAP SIX CONFERENCE!

Randall Crew is truly a lifelong Democrat. His mother, Nervahna Crew, started carrying him to all her Democratic activities from early childhood. Nervahna has served on the SEC for many years, was elected to the Wake County Soil and Water Board, held positions in the nation Biden campaign, and now is Deputy State Director of America Votes North Carolina.

From the beginning of school Randall has compiled academic achievements as well as football and wrestling stardom. Recently he was presented “Academic All-Conference Award” and “All-Conference Award” recognitions by the highly competitive Cap Six Conference of high school athletics.

In the Spring of 2024 he will graduate from Enloe High School in Raleigh and he has already received many athletic scholarship offers from colleges.

Two different views of Randall. The picture on the left shows Randall when he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Junior ROTC at Enloe High. The picture on the right shows how opposing players see Randall on the football field.

SURLUTA ANTHONY WINS IN MONROE!

Surluta B. Anthony was the top vote getter in the November 7th race for the Monroe City Council. She was one of nine candidates competing for three seats.

Surluta has already served on the City Council in the past and the citizens happily returned her to office.

She is Treasurer of the NCDP Senior Citizens Caucus and she has served several terms on the SEC.

FUNDRAISER FOR DURHAM DEMOCRATS!

On November 10th the Durham County Democratic Party held a climatic Victory Fund Celebration at Parizade restaurant in downtown Durham. They have a lot to celebrate: They raised more than $100,000.00 in this drive! The money will be used to hire a fulltime year-round Organizing Director - the first fulltime Organizing Director in the history of the party!

BRANDON GRAY INSTALLED!

Brandon Gray received his Oath of Office as Guilford County's newest County Commissioner on October 19th. He was appointed by the Executive Committee of the Guilford County Democratic Party to fill the vacancy created by James Upchurch. Brandon is widely known and respected after his two campaigns for the legislature.

In the picture above Superior Court Judge Stephanie Reese is administering his Oath. Joining Brandon in the picture are his husband Michael Gray-Hill, his grandmother Mary Crosse, his sister Jessi Gray, and his friend Morgan McIntosh.

Ready to start: Brandon sat with Democratic Commissioners Mary Beth Murphy, Carly Cooke, and Kay Cashion after his oath.

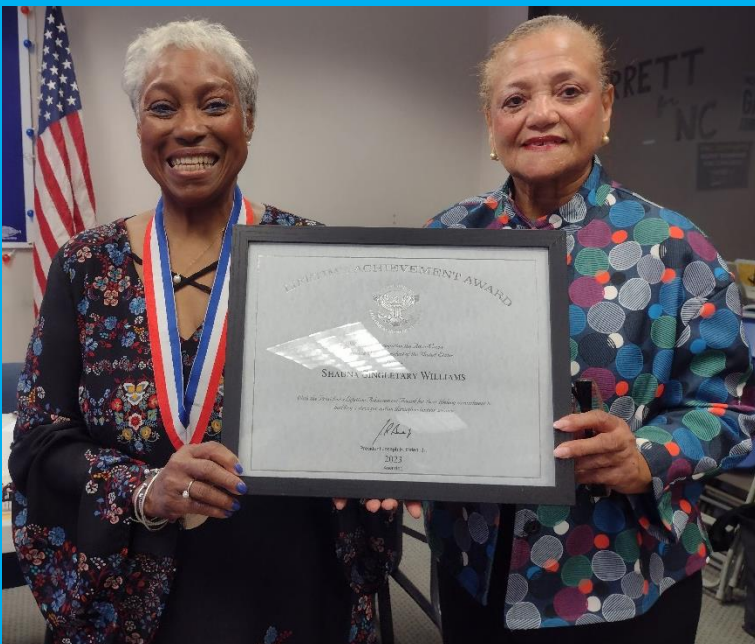

GUILFORD SENIOR DEMS HEAR SHAUNA WILLIAMS!

At their November 9th meeting the Senior Democrats of Guilford County welcomed guest speaker Shauna Williams of Warren County. She is the wife of Warren County Party Chair Yarbrough Williams.

After starting her television career at WTVD, Shauna went to New York where she became a reporter for NBC News for many years. Then she became a TV producer. Shauna entertained the Senior Dems with many amazing stories.

Earlier this year she was a recipient of the prestigious 2023 Joseph R. Biden Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award for her volunteerism.

Guilford Senior Dems President B. J. Gerald-Covington and Shauna Williams are holding the Presidential Award and Shauna is wearing the Presidential medallion.

Guilford Democratic leader Mitzi Turner said: "Shauna and Yarbrough represent the best in all of us!"

ASHE WELCOMES ANDERSON!

NCDP Chair Anderson Clayton traveled to the Ashe Arts Center in West Jefferson to address a joint meeting of the Democratic Women of Ashe County and the Ashe County Democratic Party on November 16th. First Vice Chair Jonah Garson spoke in Ashe earlier this year.
