The President shall represent the Caucus on the NCDP State Executive Committee, the NCDP Executive Council, the NCDP Resolutions and Platform Committee, the NCDP State Legislative Policy Committee, and other NCDP committees and meetings as appropriate. The President may appoint a proxy for any meeting of these NCDP committees as permitted by the NCDP.

The President shall have the power to make nominations for appointments to the Executive Committee for approval which include: Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and Representatives to Congressional District Party Executive Committees. The President shall also have the power to appoint members to standing and ad-hoc committees.

Should the State President become incapacitated or should a vacancy occur, the First Vice President will have the authority to act as President until a new President is elected by the Executive Committee for the remainder of the President's term.

The President shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- B. First Vice President: The First Vice President's responsibilities shall include communications and liaison with auxiliaries for the Caucus. The First Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Executive Committee may from time to time prescribed by resolution, or as the President may provide, subject to the powers and the supervision of the Executive Committee.

In the event the First Vice President must succeed the President due to absence, vacancy or incapacitation, the First Vice President will serve in that capacity until the President returns or a new President is elected by the Executive Committee for the remainder of the President's term.

The First Vice President shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- C. Second Vice President: The Second Vice President's responsibilities shall include membership and Muslim community outreach for the Caucus. The Second Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Executive Committee may from time to time prescribed by resolution, or as the President may provide, subject to the powers and the supervision of the Executive Committee.

The Second Vice President shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- D. Third Vice President: The Third Vice President's responsibilities shall include development of educational programming around Muslim issues for the Caucus. The Third Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Executive Committee may from time to time prescribe by resolution, or as the President may provide, subject to the powers and the supervision of the Executive Committee.

The Third Vice President shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- E. Secretary: Duties and responsibilities of the Secretary shall include keeping an accurate record of the proceedings of all Caucus and Executive Committee meetings, and giving notice in accordance with these Bylaws. Duties of the Secretary also include membership rolls, membership forms, and meeting notifications. They shall have full authority to function and sign as Secretary.

The Secretary shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- F. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep accurate account of all financial transactions for the Caucus. The Treasurer shall file records and reports with the North Carolina State Board of Elections as required by North Carolina Statutes. The Treasurer shall be authorized to dispense Caucus funds upon authorization by the Executive Committee. The Treasurer shall provide quarterly financial status updates to the Executive Committee. The Treasurer shall be required to fulfill the State Board of Elections Campaign Finance Training prior to, or within one 30 days, of taking office.

In the event the Treasurer position becomes vacant, the Assistant Treasurer shall take on the Treasurer duties until the President appoints a new Treasurer. If there is also a vacancy in the Assistant Treasurer position, then the President must appoint a new Treasurer within 30 days.

The Treasurer shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

- G. Assistant Treasurer: The Assistant Treasurer shall assist the Treasurer and be ready to temporarily assume the position of Treasurer if there is a vacancy. The Assistant Treasurer will be required to fulfill the State Board of Elections Campaign Finance Training prior to, or within one 30 days, of taking office.

The Assistant Treasurer shall convey the records of the office to their successor within 15 days of leaving the office.

SECTION 5. MEETING BUSINESS

The Executive Board shall meet at the call of the President. Meetings may be held in-person, virtually, or via a hybrid option.

Executive Board meetings are only to organize and coordinate for presentation of proposals and updates to the Executive Committee. No decisions may be made on behalf of the Caucus unless specific authority has been approved and delegated by the Executive Committee to the Executive Board.

Executive Board decisions are to be determined through a simple majority vote of members when a quorum is present.

SECTION 6. QUORUM
