

2024 North Carolina Coordinated Campaign African American Coalition Manager

The North Carolina Coordinated Campaign is seeking an African American Coalition Manager to support its African American engagement and organizing efforts across the state. An organizer at heart, the African American Coalition Manager will be responsible for supporting partners, volunteers, and staff across the state to ensure that the campaign is reaching African Americans where they are and engaging them both as volunteers and voters.

Access to reliable transportation is required for this position. This position is located in North Carolina and requires in-person work. It is a non-supervisory role and is a CWG bargaining unit position. This is a full-time temporary role through the 2024 election cycle that will end November 15, 2024.

Job Description

- Support the Political & Coalitions Director and Deputy Director in implementing the campaign's strategy to engage and mobilize African American supporters.
- Serve as the primary point of contact for coalition partners, providing timely updates, resources, and support.
- In close coordination with the Organizing team, organize and support coalition events, meetings, and initiatives across the state to foster engagement and collaboration.
- Represent the Campaign at coalition events, meetings, conference calls, and training sessions that advance program goals.
- Support the African American program by facilitating coordination across departments on events, messaging, and programming focused on African American communities throughout North Carolina.

Required Skills and Qualifications

- At least 1-2 cycles of campaign experience.
- Strong written and verbal communications skills; strong interpersonal skills with the ability to work effectively with employees at all levels.
- Strong political judgment and knowledge of key issues that matter to African American voters.
- Proven track record to lead and build relationships with organizations, community leaders, and stakeholders.
- Can manage multiple priorities and deadlines in a detail-oriented manner. Ability to work well under pressure.
- Experience in coalition-building and working collaboratively with multiple organizations.
- Good personal organization, including ability to meet deadlines and multitask; experience with Google sheets or Excel, a plus.

Preferred Skills and Qualifications

- Has demonstrated commitment to social and racial justice and an understanding of the issues facing African American communities, including systemic racism, economic disparities, and access to education and healthcare.
- Desire to ask questions, receive constructive feedback, and grow as a professional.
- Can manage multiple priorities and deadlines in a detail-oriented manner. Ability to work well under pressure.

Salary and Benefits

This position is salaried at $5,500 per month. This is a temporary full-time position through the 2024 election cycle.
